

THE BAYBERRY

Amagansett

In addition to the 12 acres of artfully designed garden showrooms, we will have the rare opportunity to tour the House Gardens. For over 30 years, owner David Seeler orchestrated the gardens' evolution. Always in relation to the house, they are designed to connect to and expand the use of the indoor rooms to which they are connected.

The $60 Fee includes:

Luxury Coach Transportation with Pick-up and Drop-off Stops at LIE Exit 40, Exit 49 and Exit 70

Admission and Tour of Each Garden

Refreshing Lunch Served at The Bayberry

BRIDGE GARDENS

Bridgehampton

A unique botanical garden in the heart of Bridgehampton. Jim Kilpatrick and Harry Neyens started gardening the space in 1988 and over the next 20 years created a wonderful oasis that covers five acres and includes many specimens of trees, hedgerow, flowers and herbs. Bridge Gardens is now a stewardship project of the Peconic Land Trust.

SEPTEMBER 16TH 2010

Long Island Nursery & Landscape Association

MADOO CONSERVANCY

Sagaponack

Over the last forty years, artist and writer Robert Dash has established a green, organic encyclopedia of gardening on two acres of land in Sagaponack, featuring Tudor, High Renaissance, early Greek, as well as Oriental garden influences.

Madoo has been described by the New York Times as "an ever-changing masterpiece." A leading European gardening publication cites it as "one of the ten best gardens in America".

EAST END GARDEN TOUR

Let the Inspiration Begin!

REGISTRATION

East End Garden Tour

September 16th

You must pre-register by September 7th. Complete this form and send it with your payment to:

LINLA, P.O. Box 1165, Farmingdale, NY 11735.

Make checks payable to LINLA.

If you have any questions, please contact Kim Psinakis at the LINLA office at info@LINLA.org or 516-249-0545.

Name:

Company:

Address:

City, State, Zip:

Telephone:

E-mail:

Number of Attendees:

_____ x $60 each = _____

Space is Limited, So Register Early!

Sorry, No Refunds

SEPTEMBER 16TH 2010

EAST END GARDEN TOUR

Let the Inspiration Begin!

Join Us on Thurs. September 16th for a Full Day of Fun with a Bus Tour of Three South Fork Gardens and Lunch with Friends.

Board the bus at one of our 3 convenient stops and let the inspiration begin.

This year our annual Garden Tour will visit the iconic south fork. Heat up your creative juices by visiting three East End treasures, each with its own flavor and character.

