INSTRUCTIONS for SUBMITTING

As part of our re-boot of the program. We have moved to a new, more modern competition process. Many of the steps, from application to judging, will now be online.

Instructions and Videos are Built into the Portal

After applying for entry, you will receive access to the Online Submission portal. This easy to use portal will house all of your project information and photos.

Judges will use this portal to assess your project while concealing your identity. The following is a description of the information you will enter into the portal.

NOTE:

- All your Entries will be accessed through your Entry Page.
- You can also change Categories from this page as well.

AWARD CATEGORIES

---

Consider and choose a category for your Entry from the following categories. No portion or phase of a project may be entered in more than one category. Enter each completed entry to the appropriate section of the online entry portal.

RESIDENCE greater than 1/2 Acre - Includes those single-family projects in which the entire residential project is developed. - For this project, continuity and balance are important.

RESIDENCE 1/2 Acre or less - Includes those single-family projects of less than 1/2 acre in which the entire residential project is developed. For this project, continuity and balance are important. Property dimension lines must be included on the submitted plans.

ENTRANCE - (Residential Entry) Includes front walks and plantings, driveway approaches, parking areas, etc.

ACTIVE USE AREA less than $250,000 - Includes swimming pools, tennis courts, play areas and other areas used for active recreation.

ACTIVE USE AREA above $250,000 - Includes swimming pools, tennis courts, play areas, and other areas used for active recreation.

PASSIVE USE AREA - Includes patios, vegetable / hobby gardening, fire / water features and those areas designed strictly for viewing, sitting and other forms of passive recreation. (Swimming pools and related areas are not to be included in this category).

MINI-SCAPE - For small projects, (must be 2,500 square feet or less), including all aspects of landscape development on a smaller scale. Plan must show overall dimensions of area submitted to establish eligibility. Entry can be a small part of a larger project, but it must have its own plan, photos, and meet square footage requirements. Photos should capture only the 2500 sq. ft area.

COMMERCIAL - Projects such as; multi-family residences (including condo common spaces), office buildings, shopping centers, etc.

NEW ENTRANT - This category is open to all members, old and new, who have never entered a LINLA awards competition. New entrants are not obligated to enter this category. Each project is judged on its own merits, regardless of the size or type of project. A small project, well-designed and wonderfully executed, would fare better than an elaborate project of mediocre design and installation.

SUSTAINABLE LANDSCAPE - Projects in this category may be of any size. The focus is on projects that make a conscientious effort to minimize their impact on the environment, conserve and protect natural resources, and source native plants and local materials. These efforts must be outlined in the 'Problem Statement'.

BID / BUILD - This category was added to acknowledge excellence in execution. Projects entered will have been designed by an outside firm, gone through the bidding process, and built by the entering company. Judging will not focus on design, but on attention to detail and superior execution of that design.

1. DESIGN PROBLEM STATEMENT:

In 800 words or less, describe:

- 1) The purpose of the project;
- 2) Role of the designer;
- 3) Special factors (obstacles, construction techniques, special client desires or demands, budget constraints, etc.).

Please note: This statement of the design problem and solution is the only clue that the judges will have as to the client's requirements, and the reasons for your solution. Please take the time to note aspects of the project over which you may have had little or no control, such as other contractors or existing construction.

2. LANDSCAPE PLAN:

This copy should contain base information including: north arrow, remaining existing vegetation, existing structures, property lines, work limit lines and setback requirements.

Plan must also include: numbered directional arrows showing where each "after" photograph was taken; with photos numbered to correspond to this plan. This plan file should be fully rendered to best present your project submission. Plans MUST reflect the finished project.

3. PLANTING PLAN:

Provide a planting plan file at a level of detail which properly reflects the finished project. This plan must include plant names and be readable by the judges

REMOVE ALL COMPANY IDENTIFICATION FROM ALL DRAWINGS.

4. PHOTOS:

A maximum of eight (8) color photos representing different views of the finished project will be allowed, numbered to correspond with the numbered arrows on the design plan, as stated above. Additional photos of the finished projects will be removed from the entry at random. "Before" shots are optional and very helpful to the judges. Up to four (4) "before" photos will be accepted in addition to the eight "after" photos.

One of the photos should show an "overall" view of the project when possible. Where projects are in close proximity to existing structures, one or more photos should show the relationship of the landscaping to these existing structures (house, cabana, etc.).

Digitally altered photos are not permitted. Images deemed by the LINLA Awards Committee to have been altered will subject the entry to disqualification.

Please note: Projects entering the two "Residence" categories ONLY, may submit up to twelve (12) color photos representing different views of the project. Also up to four (4) "before" photos will be accepted in addition to the 12 "after" photos.

JUDGING

All awards are determined based on a 100-point scoring system. Points are awarded by a judging panel that is comprised of industry professionals from various regions of the United States. Projects are judged based on appearance, degree of difficulty, execution of design and other category specific criteria. Entries are judged anonymously and do not compete against each other; they are judged on their own merit.

Awards will be granted solely at the discretion of the judges. Awards may not be given in all categories if they do not meet the judging criteria.
